

TRAVEL BUGS

Experts present the latest on traveller's health and tropical diseases

Did you know nearly one third of the world's population is infected with parasites?

- What are parasites?
- Where do they occur?
- Could you be at risk?

If you're a health savvy traveller then this is a must see FREE public presentation. Hear from the experts about malaria, hookworms, traveller's diarrhoea and more.

WHERE

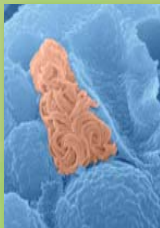

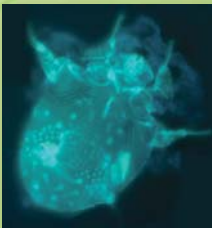

Queensland Institute of Medical Research,
Westpac Auditorium, Level E, Bancroft
Building, 300 Herston Road, Herston

WHEN

Tuesday 27th March 6:30pm for 7pm start

RSVP BY TUESDAY 13TH MARCH

E-mail Mandie.Quince@qimr.edu.au or phone 3362 0430

PROGRAM

6:30pm - 7:00pm Drinks and finger foods

7:00pm - 8:00pm Travel Bugs presentation

8:00pm - 8:30pm Discussion panel and questions

8:30pm - 9:00pm Coffee and biscuits

SPEAKERS

- Prof Nick Smith on the ARC/NHMRC Research Network for Parasitology
- Prof Michael Good on Malaria
- Dr Malcolm Jones on Schistosomiasis
- Dr Alex Loukas on Hookworms
- Ms Charlene Willis on Scabies
- Dr Jacqui Upcroft on Giardia

DIRECTIONS

Turn left off Inner City Bypass or turn into Herston Road from Bowen Bridge Road or Kelvin Grove Road. Parking is available across the road from QIMR. Enter building with Suncorp Metway sign at the front.

MAP

